What is the GetMyFirstJob Ambassador Network

The GetMyFirstJob Ambassador Network is a group of inspired ambassadors who volunteer to talk about their experiences to inspire young people and tell them about all the opportunities available to them after school, college or further in their career.

GetMyFirstJob Ambassadors are:

Credible

Ambassadors instill confidence and trust in others by the quality of their knowledge, skills, presence, and professionalism.

Owners

Ambassadors take complete ownership of their role and task, always seeking out opportunities to contribute.

Collaborative

Ambassadors thrive by achieving results with others. They are able to leverage collective expertise and are adept at building effective networks to achieve shared goals.

Relationship Driven

Ambassadors maintain relationships with a wide variety of people over an extended period of time.

What do GetMyFirstJob Ambassadors do?

GetMyFirstJob Ambassadors make a valuable contribution to the reputation of apprenticeships by raising the aspirations of young people aged 14-24 to help them make informed decisions about their future. Our ambassadors represent not only their own journey, employer and training provider but be an advocate for all the opportunities on the GetMyFirstJob website.

We have a tiered ambassadorial structure to allow every ambassador the chance to share their story while choosing exceptional apprentices to shape and influence our network.

What's in it for employers?

- Encourage prospective candidates to ask questions on LinkedIn to facilitate networking, best practise and top tips.
- Input towards our communications via social media channels to support key messages and campaigns (e.g. National Apprenticeship Week).
- Get unbiased feedback from current apprentices to help us deliver you a better service.
- Additional PR opportunities through our network and exposure alongside FTSE250 companies
- Have access to GetMyFirstJob recorded content for use in own promotional material.
- Apprentice Ambassadors will also naturally be advocates for their employer, spotlighting their experience and encouraging future applicants.
- Ambassadors will be exposed to experiences and areas they may not gain through their apprenticeship alone, such as networking and mentoring which will help them in their end-point assessment.
